Motorcycle Safety Tips for Winter Riding in Florida

For riders in Lakeland, Sebring, and Tampa, "winter" means something different than it does in the rest of the country. We don't usually have to worry about black ice or salt trucks. Instead, we enjoy some of the best riding weather of the year.

Tourist Season & Accident Risks: How to Protect Yourself When Florida Roads Are Crowded

If your commute down US-98 or US-27 feels twice as long lately, you aren't imagining it. We are at the peak of "Tourist" and "Snowbird" season.

Between January and April, Central Florida sees a massive influx of temporary residents and vacationers. While they boost our economy, they also increase the risk of accidents on our roadways.
